Below is a screen shot of a Facebook post by Scott Duncan, accomplished Artist and successful business owner in Kincardine for over 20 years, describing Paisley Blues Fest's importance and contribution to Bruce County's creative culture.

Scott Duncan Yesterday at 12:08 PM · 📀

...

I'm so excited to see the Paisley Blues Festival getting ready to ramp up their summer outdoor concert series! This beautiful little town not far from Kincardine has lots to offer for day trippers and longer stays. Their Blues Festival has been an important part of Bruce County's creative culture for years now, and seeing how they've pivoted to respond to current obstacles is refreshing and inspiring! Add some of these dates to your calendar and support people who are making life more vibrant here in the Bruce!

